I've not chatted with you for a long time. My husband died 2 years ago and left behind a mess that I am still dealing with.

But I wish you well as the world turns, hopefully in a better direction and you do more writing and some new activities that await. Thank you for all the work and effort you have done to make our world a better place.

Joyce 😊

There is no death :

Sending a short video ...

Happy news about life and death 😊 Life after death is natural and has nothing to do with religion ... religions have only used it as a purpose to get power. - There is no death ... we live on in our ethereal astral body ---- It's no more strange or mystic/magic with an invisible astral body than invisible mobile waves ...

An illegal and immoral war or wars, inadequate health care, dissolving education, destruction of the Bill of Rights, complete moral collapse; Can we do anything about these and other serious issues?

December 21, 2012; it is time for a national strike. It is time for a natural strike.

Everyone should go on strike starting 12-21-12 and just stay home. No marching, no occupying, no work, no school, no shopping, just stay home. Stay home and paint that spare room, clean the kitchen, read a book, write a book, but just stay home. If you just stay home they, whoever they may be, cannot tear-gas you, or put you in jail or shoot you. Just stay home for eleven days, till the first of the year. Just stay home.

Why not? You have done everything else from demonstrations to turning blind eyes. Do you really think you have a say in this democratic republic? Let your silence speak out. Let your absence be conspicuous. If people are ever going to catch the ears of our leaders there must first be a great silence. They do not exist without the people and if the people just stay home those who have betrayed us will begin to fade; listen for the cries of desperation.

Dec. 12, the Winter Solstice, what better time to take a little time off and catch up on your contemplation and self-realization. The date was already popular with astrologists and meteorologists, and for years it's been getting a lot of press and investigation over the Mayan cylinder ending. So why not make an event out of it. Just stay home until the first of the year, and consider your place in world being ruled by a handful of obscenely wealthy people, or stay home and clean the garage. Just stay home. Jesus would, so would the Buddha's and Mohammed, not to mention Gandhi already did.

Just stay home 12-21-12 thru 1-1-13. 122112

You gotta do this with PEACE, LOVE AND PICKLED EGGS or enough food of choice for eleven days and a good book.

Just stay home!

cycle, the fourth sun of Maya`s cosmology.

They came back on earth to encounter primitive humans that where descendants of those who managed to survive outside in certain untouched spots the cataclysm did not affect.

The so called fallen angels that where in fact humans, used the technology they still possessed to convince the primitive they where gods and they showed them techniques like metallurgy, agriculture, architecture, irrigation and taught them words and writing, so the primitive man became educated and therefore the conditioning of his brain made the connection he had with de Tao become less an less effective to the point it was ruptured. They are those who built the first cities and imposed money, with the help of slaves captured and forced to work in the beginnings.

For they are the ones that brought metal weapons and war techniques, developed navigation and colonization. They are also those who proposed gods looking like humans placing man on top of an artificial hierarchy where all other species were meant to serve him. From there man subjugated by his enforced pride started to destroy nature and enslave animals to serve his own growth. Doing that he slowly degenerated.

When you live in the city, you are pushed to adopt the system they imposed, you let your own children get conditioned by what will transform them in slaves for that class of rulers. The middle is so persuading that you are yourself overwhelmed, incapable of seeing the truth.

You are working on the prisons that are confining your families in a labyrinth where it is impossible to find the way out. Most will be lost because they are from the diversion I mentioned previously, as what was the biodiversity, forms of life that disappeared with the growth of urbanization. They were recycled to augment the number of human mutants, their souls weren't meant to inhabit human form and therefore are unable to attain a degree of conscience to use it properly. That is known by the rulers and they manipulate those creatures to make them work on their selfish goals.

Do you really think you live in a free speech country where your vote has a value ? It's your conditioning that is voting, not you. They already built some of their retreats, stacking reserves, weapons, tools and the last technology to protect the chosen few that will pass through the chaotic period of the planet reaction to human infection. An infection they induced to gain power. They will be the pathogen bacteria, the virus that will survive to infect the next cycle.

Most of politicians are puppets chosen because their ambition and greed for self recognition, they are blind to a point the true rulers can make them do what they want them to do, be very convincing salesman for the impossible dream they propose. Commercial artists are also used on another level as mediators between politicians and the people they are subsidized by the merchants who find in them a vehicle for selling their products, to maintain the system in place long enough for, at their level to transform in the opposite phase of recovering by relaxation and rebuilding our reserves, this simple knowledge is the key named planetary heart.

Vision of future events.

I can tell what is ahead, for my vision is clear and able to see the signs announcing the events to come. Those are in relation with my own body that is connected with the earth. What happens to the one happens to the whole.

Many of the human kind will follow the priests of the religion in which money is the god, for they are not true humans, they were diverted from species to grow the armies of believers in the false teachings of the black priests, using techno-media to infect the brains with appealing propaganda.

This important mass of followers will eventually provoke the collapse of the planet equilibrium and cataclysmic reactions will occur killing most of the humans on earth. Those events have already occurred in dispersed locations, they will generalize soon, affecting almost the entire planet. The reason they need to gain more and more power is to build what will protect them from the fury of mother earth reacting to the infection of mankind. Only a few will be accepted in their fortress, all those who worked for them constructing their protective armor will be abandoned after use. That is the wrong direction it is the selfish and egotistic belief that the ancients described as the fallen angels of the symbolic and mythic representation.

There is a way to escape the fury and consequences it will bring and that way is in relation with the retreat, the FOU hexagram of the I ching, sacred book and witness of the ancient wisdom contained in the primitive knowledge of the beings connected to the Tao. All are invited for it is free and open.

Look for Fractal vision, it's free.

Please pass on this message.

Andogenia

Have you seen the movie 2012? One of the few that were saved is the monk on the mountain, the one the wave submerged. His body died, but he survived because he identified to the whole, leaving his individuality behind. For the rest, that movie like many others is propaganda for false solutions that the merchants and the industries they feed sell to the captive people in the cities. All those who went in the ark were lost, not because they died, because they thought saving their bodies was enough, nourishing the fear of death for them and their relatives. If there is way's to control the mass, fear is one of the most effective.

When I evoked the fallen angels of the myth, I made a fractal reading of it, relating them to what is happening, here and now, on earth.

We can see a majority of people that are confined in the cities, mentally enslaved by a sophisticated mental conditioning to work for the descendants of a class of rulers that are originally the fallen angels, survivors of the previous catastrophic event that erased almost all human life on the planet. Their families rule the human kind since they came out of the hidden techno cities that were built in the previous

For those who are children of the earth, please listen to my words, I speak for our mother.

Thrive is a clear example of merchant propaganda, like many other built on the same pattern.

All the ingredients of mainstream fast food for the sick brains of the people in our overstimulated and infatuated societies are present in this mental big mac . New age pretensions, outer space intelligence behind the revelation, miraculous free energy is in big letters on the entry sign of this proposition of a new world where alle the words everybody wants to hear are used ad nauseam. Wealth, democracy, equality, freedom etc etc.

It's another announcement for an Eldorado for those looking for an apparent easy way to solve their problems

Lets look at it with special glasses that allow reading small and hidden characters. The merchants behind the proposition say that the thorus, a natural expression of energy in the nature can be used through a machine they sell ... Maybe you can buy the plans, you'll still have to buy the parts from the industries they control. It's recuperation of ancient knowledge that was used without any technology, the body was the only mediator needed for using it. This knowledge is still alive and few practitioners use it in their lives.

Machines are not the answer, it's the problem.

There is a condition for being able to use the free energy of the Tao, one of the names used to describe it. The condition seems to hard and long for many who wants it fast and easy. So like others they fall in the traps the merchants use to appeal the naive.

I would like to make clear a very important point for those open to hear it.

The financial system is not a problem, it's the consequence of a problem witch is money itself. The invention of money is here the cause and it should disappear for the problem to be solved.

The source of the infection shall be removed otherwise the disease will stay.

This is a cue for all of you seeking for truth, all those who are for money and its perpetuation are liars. All those asking money for the pretended solutions they offer you are selling lies. The ancient wisdom is free for all with no distinction of rank or class. The only condition is to be open of heart and free of conditioning. The conditioning is the hard crust of beliefs engraved in our brains for thousands of years of education that buries the door to the source of knowledge, the omniscient Tao.

When the Tao is on earth the warriors are peasants in the fields and forests gathering the fruits of the soil.

In this promised land there are no computers and no machines , the bodies senses and members include all the tools needed to pick and feed from an abundant nature., for the inside is connected with the outside in a symbiotic relation. The good periodically transform to the bad, but never to become worst. The reason it does not get worst is that the good never seeks to be better. Knowing the simple fact that going up always mean going down , that activity needs

"Love is the Color of a Rainbow" with it's gentle pastel chalk illustrations invites children to experience nature through their senses-discovering what colors of the rainbow they might chose. It also fosters a parent/child interaction as they share a nature walk; in so doing empowering children through their senses in nature is a wonderful way for children to understand their relationship with nature as interconnectedness, that with nature we are one. It is no secret that children who engage in nature experience less stress, better concentration, increased creativity and higher self esteem. So come join Willow and Mama on a nature walk through all the colors of a rainbow in "Love is the Color of a Rainbow"

The book is 8.5X11 soft cover. the book is printed on 100% eco friendly paper <http://ecofriendlyprinter.com/> A portion of the proceeds from your purchase of this book will support nature and environmental organizations. customers may purchase up to six copies from my website, after this customers will want to connect with me as to how to purchase..

Well done. Beautiful. The awakening continues, as does our evolution. Exciting times ahead for humanity and the inhabitants on this beautiful Jewel of a planet. Mother Earths' sacrifice for our learning experience is not unlike the Story of Jesus. She is dying for our sins, only to be rebirthed. Peace.

This website argues that the collapse of the volcano Cumbre Vieja in the Canary Islands was predicted in the Book of Revelation, which describes a “great mountain, burning with fire” being thrown into the sea:

<http://unveilingtheapocalypse.blogspot.com/2...>

The Apocalypse foretells that this event will be the downfall of “Babylon” – the ruling world empire at the end-time.

Hello, My name is Warren Brown. I am an inner-city public school teacher (2nd grade) a father and a grandfather. last summer I bought an incredible rock at a yard-sale. Not until I got it home to my rock garden and sprayed it down with a hose and scrubbed it off with a swimming pool brush did I realize that it was incredible. My daughter made a 2 minute you-tube presentation of this rock called theincrediblerock (no spaces) Please view this presentation and possibly get back with me about this matter. I was not looking for something like this to happen, but it did and I make no appologizes about what I profess to see on this incredible rock. I do however feel compelled to find it a suitable place where it can be appreciated and enjoyed by others too. Sincerely, Warren Brown

We cannot die spiritually, it's impossible, but we are not even out of diapers in terms of our growth in this way. We are made in the image and likeness of God. We are co-creators. When will we get it? Yes, the blinders have been put on over our eyes, our lives are lived in the image of lies. Lies that have existed for ions of time and have controlled countless generations of people. Will we be the ones to see through the veil and exact the change into our true reality? We can do this people! We have to see the potential and love that we were created with and we have to recognize this in everyone and everything including our planet. Don't allow doomsday to be representative of our feelings on this. You might think that a good dose of reality will change things, but it fosters reactions that are not going to result in the changes we want. We have to start to SEE the world we want! If we actually SEE the world we want we then are on our way to MANIFESTING the world we want. We are CO-CREATORS! Is there urgency in this? YES, but the real change is that we start to stand up as spiritual beings that are grateful for the beauty and completeness of what we have and then walk into that space of beauty where everything we have need of has already been established for us. Why is this important? If we don't do this, we deny who we are and what we are capable of doing as the Beings God intended us to BE and we'll always have the same conflicts to live with. Focus on the complete picture of Paradise. We were given Paradise, we have soiled our nest, but we can get it back. We have to SEE Paradise in order to create it and we can't do it alone. We have to do it TOGETHER!

Greetings from the deep freeze!

Hope that sharing this will be an inspiration from the meditation today. When I asked the blessing from the Ancestors and throughout the meditation something quite interesting developed. I saw our link to the ancestors as a linked chain of shining metal through eons of time, but somehow the chain started to intertwine mankind making us impotent in our persons in such a way that we became bound tightly by the same chain looping around individuals throughout the world. Our arms, legs, whole bodies wrapped like mummies in this ancestral chain. At the same time, the chain is also wrapping around the Earth and binding us upon its surface. We have been unable to move. Progressing through the meditation, I saw many numbers of Angels encircling the Earth like a corona around the Sun. Then the chains, through our thoughts of Love started to loosen and untangle. People began to rise up and the chains fell to their rightful position wrapped around the Earth like a gleaming cellular comb both protecting Earth and giving us portals with which to shine forth our energy and also to receive the incoming reflection of energy back to us. The chain became a doorway of beauty, light, and reflection and it was part of an operational system that was in place since Earth formed. Over time it was corrupted by our own corruption and it no longer functioned properly. Rather than giving us portals of exchange with the Universe it enslaved us or should I say we enslaved ourselves. Now we are no longer fettered in this way and the beauty of a healthy system is being restored.

Quite a visionary experience that has left an impact on me this day!

Hello Jean!

You have been very busy indeed. I wanted to share with you something unusual that happened to me one morning this week as I was waking up. Since I've been journaling my dreams for a class that I am currently taking, I thought at first that I was sleeping, but it wasn't a dream and I was very much awake and was experiencing more of a vision.

When I opened my eyes I saw my room as it is, but everything was glittering as sparks of light. The solid forms were there, but they were formed from the light and the whole scene was like looking at sparkling snow or diamonds, as best as I can describe it.

Then I was told that I was also made from this same glittering light. Of course I know this, but I haven't ever really seen it in this way. I've seen the moving energy of form before, but never the light. It was very beautiful and affirming in what I've been reading from messages that others have brought forward and I thought it worth sharing. We are truly living in changing times and becoming aware of the potential of what we are and how we are part of a whole that is very much wanting to be recognized.

Jean,

I'm sending you the most sensical and practical summation I've ever heard about where we're at as a species taking into account our space brothers, planet earth as an evolving entity and what to expect in the coming years as things come to a head and after they've come to a head. They are the product of Mark Kimmel and his association with higher frequency beings. Mark wrote a trilogy about how and why we're being affected by higher frequencies, which mainly involved our space brothers and sisters. I believe I found out about it on your blog. If you open the link I sent, you'll see a brief intro by Mark and right after the big number "14", it'll get into the meat of it all.

Excerpt from Channeled Message 10-6-10 I am here to get the word out. The Word out that you begin to understand that you play a part in the ONE Higher Consciousness. For you to understand your actions, your thoughts, your feelings, your emotions, are all one with someone else, are ONE with everyone else. It is not just I AM, because the I AM is "Everyone". So "I" is a universal word for everyone. I AM is everyone and that is the message that is coming through today. I AM joyous! I AM grateful! I AM appreciative! I AM a higher consciousness! I AM a positive energy! I will remain a positive energy

I don't know if you've ever mentioned "Starseed radio Academy" on your blog, but if you haven't, many readers will be most interested. The main person speaking is named "Lavandar" and she started receiving info from the Pleiadians back around the mid 70's and told to record it and lock it away until a certain time arrived. That time is now and there's a weekly internet show that has her revealing all this incredible information. The link is

Hello Jean,

Well, once again, a compilation that piques many responses within. One of interest in so many ways is the subject of human enhancement and transhumanist ethics. So much good with potential for so much harm. We haven't gotten right yet dealing what we already have. How can we take this leap without leaving natural humans as a pile of garbage to be burned or buried in the local refuse dump? All of the funding for this type of improvement could be used to address the myriad of issues we already face as natural humans in a beautiful world where a response from the heart could really change us into super humans!

For the last 30 odd(very odd) years I have been seeking deeper and wider perspectives from good friends and whanau(maori 4 wider family) thru wonderful trance medium friend Francis and his contact/collective in spirit MERCREDAN (masters of mercy) I have recorded and transcribed many of the transmissions and happy to share, at this 'end of epoch' challenge we are all facing.

Thanks, Adele, for reminding me. I do appreciate it.

Here's a message from Hilarion that I found supportive:

June 27-July 3, 2010

Welcome back, Beloved Lightworkers,

These times that you are living in are the most challenging and most exhilarating Humankind has ever experienced. These times are filled with the old structures and paradigms collapsing all around you and at the same time, the new way of living and being is being implemented, this is truly a wondrous time to be present in a physical body as these changes occur and each of you are an active participant in them. Well met, Beloved Ones! Many of you are leaving the old patterns behind you and embracing a new way, a way of sovereignty and personal power, a way of peace, loving kindness, compassion for all, for how can it be otherwise, for when you gaze into the eyes of your sister or brother, you see their Divinity reflected there.

In the next month or so, there will continue to be great changes taking place within the minds and hearts of Humanity and there will be great revelations taking place in each one's consciousness and understanding. Much will change as this happens, for the force of Love is at work and there is no greater power in existence. Many things that were hidden will come to Light and the minds of Humanity will be experiencing shock and awe as they come forth. Know that each of you are prepared to take your places as this happens and that you have been placed in exactly the right spot to be of the greatest benefit to the Earth and all upon Her. Your Light is a shining Beacon and each of you hold a greater role in the Divine Plan than you can imagine at this time. Your Light transmutes and transforms and stabilizes everything within the radius of your home for hundreds of miles around you. That is how powerful you are!

Go through these times remembering the Light that you are and daily affirm that you are the Light and the Light is needed now. As the Cosmic Forces pour down upon the atmosphere of the Earth, all will be affected in a way that is in keeping with the Path that each has chosen to walk in these changing times. Let go of the fetters and the illusions and the games that are still playing around you. We understand that this is very difficult to do when it is your own Loved Ones who are in the midst of these, but you must hold steady your Light and your great faith in the Light of God that never fails and never falter. Call upon the Forces of Light that surround you and believe that all is as it should be.

Each day, take the time to affirm the life that you envision for yourselves and your Loved Ones and hold steady to the vision. In the midst of the chaos, your visions will see you through. You are our Front Line teams, you are the ones who have held the Light steady upon the Earth, even when you have been severely tested, and, we know that you have been, Dear Ones and that it does not seem fair, for those who are so good, so kind, so loving to be asked to bear such great burdens. Know that this, too, shall pass

The Eclipses of Summer 2010: The Transformation Begins

The Eclipses of Summer 2010: The Transformation Begins

26 June 2010 - 7:54pm | DL Zeta

Channeler:

DL Zeta

The approaching energies of the full moon lunar eclipse triggered a wave of increasing intensity this past week. These energies will extend into coming weeks and months, bringing about clearing and release at all levels.

Lunar Eclipse Energies and the Clearing of Cellular Trauma

Foremost in the clearing will be residual emotions lingering from past traumas. These residual emotions derive from past times when a challenge or rite of passage triggered deep emotions we were unable to fully understand and process at the time. When this occurs, the episode and its residual emotions enter into the fabric of our being, spinning out new versions of itself over time to provide us with new opportunities for healing and release.

These unprocessed emotions can become trapped in cellular memory, spinning out new versions of themselves over time. Each new version will be slightly different from the one before, often "kinder and gentler" as our understanding of the core issue grows with each reenactment.

Releasing Resistance to the Healing Flow

The potent energies of this lunar eclipse will touch on all deeply-felt "sacred wounds" in an attempt to help us access new levels of healing and release. If we resist this clearing, we will experience new and increasingly insurmountable obstacles on our path.

If this seems to be happening, there is a simple solution within the moment: slow down, breathe deeply and ask for guidance and assistance. Be willing to examine the situation before you from the perspective of a detached observer. Read the symbols present within the moment to find ways you may be swimming against the tide of the current flow.

By releasing resistance and welcoming the emotional clearing now taking place, you will be able to make the most of the opportunities these energies offer.

Journaling and Dreamwork Bring Clarity to 'Waking Dreams'

If you aren't certain what is being asked of you at this time, journaling and writing down and interpreting your dreams can offer important clues. Journaling is similar to dream work in that it helps you gain perspective and insight into your "waking dream."

Anyone who holds the illusion that they will be able to scrape by the lunar eclipse's housecleaning energies might want to reconsider. A powerful T-square formed by Uranus, Jupiter, Pluto and Saturn ensures the energies are felt by everyone everywhere. No one is exempt.

Preparing for the July 11 Solar Eclipse: New Visions and Downloads

As the clearings do their work, a tranquil time will ensue. The period between the June 26 lunar eclipse and the July 11 solar eclipse will bring many new downloads and visions upon which to build a new and more vibrant future.

Inner spaces newly cleared of old, stagnant emotions will welcome the dazzlin

Hi Jean,

Maybe, at this special time when we are being asked to focus on our intentions for the future, we are beating our heads against the wall with so much focus on the negative details of what is going on in the gulf. Maybe even energizing the mess if we go into anger, fear and hopelessness.

I pray for the sea creatures every day, love them, and yes, shed tears for them. Miracles abound, and the only way I see to make swift positive change in the gulf NOW is to focus on the miracles and activate our energies to create them, from our most high vibrational states. Maybe this is the doorway to something that shifts consciousness overnight, with so many souls praying from a most compassionate state.

Many potentials are possible, which shall we energize?? Must we allow for ever negative possibility and bring them into our focus? I think not. I don't stick my head in the sand and avoid what I must see, I do not however need to look at every negative possible outcome in infinite detail now. Too much muck and mire just gets us stuck, and shuts down our light. The least damage and suffering with the most change! That is my mantra, filled with love and gratitude for the creatures whose sacrifice this has taken.

All actually IS in Divine order, as hard as that may be to see now.

love and thank you,
Adele

May you experience Light, Love, Health and Happiness!

I just posted a portion of a channeled piece I received yesterday. Where I live in the United States, people are almost refusing to awaken. They seem so complacent and continue to ignore the problem, which will only get more serious--until we do wake up.

What to do!

Does anyone have any ideas, besides retreating to a safer place geographically?

I'd appreciate any words of advice on how to get people to listen. They are all waiting for someone else to do it. They still believe the government, scientists, and BP are doing all they can.

On a personal level, it is hard to take!

Thanks for listening,

A Hathor Planetary Message Through Tom Kenyon
Increasing Intensity of the Chaotic Node: The Gulf of Mexico

You are entering a very difficult passage in this phase of the Chaotic Node. Danger to planetary life has been created through human arrogance, greed and stupidity. We are speaking here of the disaster in the Gulf of Mexico. You have not been told the entire truth about the situation by your media or by your government. The situation is dire and there are multiple possible timelines that intersect this event.

We wish to discuss some of these, but then shift our attention to you, the individual human. These timeline possibilities we are discussing are malleable, changeable. They are not written in stone, as the saying goes. There are so many factors involved in the ecological disaster unfolding in the Gulf; it is difficult to predict the actual outcome, as it will appear in your three-dimensional reality. And as we have said before, things can radically change even in the eleventh hour.

The oil and gas reserves that have been punctured are vast, and if it is not contained it will unfold into several possibilities.

One of these extreme possibilities is the extinction of much (if not all) sea life in the Gulf region and a transporting of the contaminants into the Atlantic Ocean through the Gulf Stream to the coast of Europe, where a high level of toxicity will negatively affect ocean life in these regions of the Atlantic. If the puncture is not sealed, pollution of the entire Atlantic Ocean is a distinct possibility, and eventually the rest of the world's oceans will be compromised. The further away from the Gulf region, the less toxicity there will be. But one distinct possibility is an eventual contamination of the entire Earth's oceans.

In a worsening scenario, the methane gas, the natural gases in this field, could erupt and break through the ocean floor creating a tsunami of immense destructive capability as well as the release of poisonous gases into the region.

Another worse case scenario would unfold if the rift in the ocean floor were large enough to create a tectonic shift that rises up from the Gulf into the Mississippi and into the Great Lakes. This would be a disastrous scenario far beyond imagination.

Again, the current situation in the Gulf is a direct result of human arrogance, greed and stupidity on the part of the corporations involved in this incident and due to governmental negligence. The primary value that drives these corporate interests is profit, and so risks were taken that should have never been taken had the sanctity of life been included in the equation, but such was not the case. Sadly this is a trait of the age you are now leaving, and you are witnessing, first hand, the defamation of the waters of the Earth by a culture that depends upon oil and corporate interests that prevent the utilization of other technologies, all in the name of profit.

What will your money be worth if life is compromised? This simple intelligence test seems to have been failed. You Friends, we are being told that the mess in the Gulf is ours and we must clean it up; that is, the impetus to do so is going to have to come from us, the everyday people who care. We are being told it is quite possible to do and that there are two places in this country that have the technology to do it. I've been waiting and watching on the net, and I believe it is possible that one of them has come to my attention this morning. If you agree that this might have the slightest chance of being a possibility, please forward this email widely. . .

Also, it is suggested that we call our Congress people and email the White House at: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/contact> (It is a very simple procedure . . .)

Here is the website where you can watch the short (2:40) video: <http://vaticproject.blogspot.com/2010/06/vat...>

I must say I know nothing about this particular website, but when I watched the video, simple, to the point, with words spoken, not by a slick operator, but by a man who appears to be an honest, caring, hardworking person, I have to ask myself the question: is this one of the companies I've been looking for?

There is a telephone number given, and if you have the ability to call and talk with these people to further verify the viability of what they offer. . . please, please do so!! And then, let us all know about it so we can push harder and stronger!!

In the meantime, I will continue to keep looking . . . As some of you know, I have an almost uncanny way of finding info . . .

Remember, we are being told over and over again, "We are the ones we've been waiting for!" There will be no more 'great white father' to save us; that time is over. We gave such men the job, and we can see just how they have 'saved' us. Either we are going to do it, or it isn't going to happen . . .

Thanks,
~Jean

Dear Jean,

Thank you again for your compilations during this busy time of year, but we are all so in need of this coming together within the sphere of your influence that makes this possible.

The reality of our situation on Earth can be viewed positive, negative or both. In view of balance, I look at both, but I feel and try to express the positive. Having ones head in the sand does no one any good, but dwelling on the problems with a doomsday mindset or anger doesn't make much of a doorway for change. I have heard people say that they are being overwhelmed with a fear and I always tell them that if they listen closely to Gaia they will sense her love and her healing. All of nature is shouting this at us even the rocks! We are loved and we need to believe in Gaia's healing and our own healing.

I may have written about this before, but many years ago I saw myself in a past life being taught to bring in the Light as I sat before a black window/screen with my teacher standing beside me and my parents behind me. I peered into complete blackness and was intentioning Light to be drawn in. This memory was given to me now to support what needs to happen now. We are all looking into a black void, but we have the potential to call in the Light.

We can do this because we are also Light and we need to bring more of the Light into our awareness at this time. Light and what it represents is more valuable than anything else because it brings life and therefore Love into our presence. Without Light and Love there cannot be Life. My hope is that; more and more often, people will stop in their busy days and simply call in the Light.

Thank you,

Suzanna

Greetings,

We are approaching the anniversary of the death of Nada Agha-Soltan whose life inspired many people both inside and outside of Iran. This poem is about her. Feel free to place on your website or post on any blog. The video that has been made about her (including interviews with her family) is well worth seeing also.

Video link:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F48SinuEHlk&f...>

Here is the poem:

TO NEDA

on the first anniversary of your death, June 20th 2009

They cannot bear beauty.

They know its power one day will bring them down, and therefore they wage war against it every chance they get.

In every country
young men and women aspire towards the sacred dream of freedom.
What freedom is
is felt and only dimly known.
Often those who seek it get things wrong, all wrong.
But still it draws them.
The idea of freedom draws them on.

Neda – it could have been another girl;
it could have been one of many hundreds of thousands of girls – but it was you.
You are the one we watch.
We sit there safely in our homes,
far from the shouting and the shots,
and watch your heart's blood streaming out upon the ground.
No fear is in your eyes,
no pain.
It is as if you are aware that we are watching.
We hear your friend call,
 "Neda, please!
 Stay with us, Neda!
 Do not go!"
But there was nothing you could do, and it was time to go.

A year has passed; it is my temperament to see things not just from an Iranian point of view.
For, Neda, you were not just an Iranian woman; you are a woman of our time.
The bullet that struck you is found in other countries too.
Bullets of hate and ignorance precede the murderer's bullet.
There in your country they took Allah, the compassionate and merciful, and turned him into a beast of vengeance that no normal young woman with a lust for life could ever love.
And they've done this with my God too.
For you and me are lovers of a God of Love, while those who rule are liegemen to a twisted thing of malice and possessiveness, so very far from what is in our hearts – the God that we feel close to every time we love.

Neda, how can you be killed?
You are not just a woman, you are a force of humanity.
You are not just a woman, you are the voice of our humanity.
You are that in all of us which will not bow before injustice and will resist oppression till its inevitable demise.

You lay there, Neda, at your hasty funeral so beautiful,
as beautiful as you had been in life.
You are not dead.
It is the ones whose way of thought has run its course who now are dead.
And, seeing you, I have this premonition of the death of what must die.
The old order
has been given a little time upon the earth, but you and ones to come like you shall wrench from them the world.
Your beauty, Neda, that the crumbling order fears, shall save the world.

ONENESS!

Wow, I love stumbling across sites that have been doing the work as long as you have. Love the vintage charm and the timeless information. Great Job. I also Love to see the response from people who are just dropping the scales from their eyes and experiencing the the opening of the heart.

I agree with the "call to action" that we are to be responsible for who we are; are called to exercise our beingness and cease Mothers Bleeding into the oceans. NOW!

If our focus is not peace...(you fill in the blank)

Hi Everyone,

There are many people feeling helpless and angry right now about the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. You don't have to feel that way. I would like to suggest some simple things that you can do to make a difference.

1. Be an armchair environmentalist. Communicate with the animals in that area to let them know about the dangers of getting oiled and where to go to be safe. The birds need to be told that if the water looks like this (show them an oil slick on the surface), that they should keep flying. The dolphins, turtles, fish and other swimming creatures, need to know that if they see an oil slick or dark spot on the surface, they should not come up there. Also if they see a dark mass in the water, they should swim away from it. Step by step instructions are included below.
2. Hold the vision of the gulf being clean and healthy. Don't hate the oil, love it back into the ground. If enough people connect with the oil (Deva of the oil) and explain that it needs to go back into the earth and seal up the hole where it is escaping, this kind of miracle can happen. Do the visualization/meditation/communication included below.
3. Call and write your senators and representatives in congress, President Obama, and the head of the EPA, Lisa Jackson. Speak from the heart about what this oil is doing to the environment, the economy and our wildlife. Ask them to stop the drilling to prevent more disasters.

Thanks for your help in turning this disaster around. Every little thing that you do WILL make a difference.

mary

CONNECTING WITH A DEVA OR NATURE SPIRIT

Each type of animal, plant or mineral, has a Deva or nature spirit that "looks after" all the beings in that group. You can communicate with this Deva, to easily get a message to all the beings of that type.

Determine which Deva you want to connect with and what you want to say or express.

In this case, you want to let the birds know that they should not land on the water if it has oil on it, the swimming creatures should not surface or swim in those areas, and the bottom dwellers need to march away as well. Tell the dolphins that they can swim south into the Atlantic or the Caribbean and be safe.

Get quiet. Do a grounding meditation or use some other technique to move into your heart center.

Set your intention and call out to the Deva of (bottlenose dolphins, sea turtles, sea birds, etc). You can also connect with the Deva of the Gulf of Mexico and ask that ALL wildlife be safely moved from the oiled areas, but connecting with the more "specific" devas seems to be more powerful.

Wait for the energy to come in. If you don't feel it right away, call again, and ask if the Deva is there.

Introduce yourself and tell this being why you have contacted them.

Tell this being about the danger of the oil and urge them to lead the animals to a safe area. Explain what happens if they get oiled. Tell them how much we love and appreciate these beings and how we want them to be safe.

Hi Jean, Would you please consider sending out a special plea, immediately for all to pray for the coastline to stop the oil slick on the southern coast of the U.S. If it reaches shore it will wipe out much wildlife and the fishermen's business. I believe this is one disaster we can influence with our prayers. I think the star beings could intercede too if we ask them. Please send out a message asap. Blessings for all you do, Debbie

Good Morning Jean!

It has been some while since connecting in this way, but your most recent compilation compels me!

With time constraints being a big part of my life at present, I've been outside of the main media corruption and much of the internet "news" as well. I must say that it has been refreshing to take a break from mass reality. If one could do so, I would highly recommend this for everyone. It's not putting your head in the sand because most of those who are informed can easily intuit what is important and maintain a meditative focus on the needs and live accordingly. What is good about this step back is perspective gained from a less immersed view and the peace it brings to the soul leaving one truly refreshed, positive and more fully able to bring ones personal Light and Love to the world at this time.

It's a temporary vacation, if you will, but a breather is good for many things!

Much love to you and your continued work. I could not search for all you present and I look forward to each compilation that you prepare. I wish that I could be more supportive in tangible ways, but it's just not possible at this time.

God Bless!

Suzanna

Jean & all, Greetings!

I have been a subscriber since 1998 or thereabouts. (What can I say -- Jean, you do great work!)

Anyway, version 2.0 of my work ("The Freetimea Project") is now newly available (at the link above). Anyone wishing to peruse a detailed design for a "right-hand" (Service-To-Others) social/political/economic system can check it out.

If you do find it of interest, please do contact me. I am on the lookout for others interested in that kind of stuff.

(If you email me, include "(ERN)" on the subject line to identify it as not spam.)

Meditation & Prayer Vigil for Haiti

Thursday Evenings at 6 p.m.

February 4th, 11th, 18th, & 25th

Please join us for an unprecedented healing event. Spiritual people from all around the world will be praying and meditating for the island of Haiti and its people. We will be gathering at 6 p.m. Pacific Standard Time every Thursday for the month of February. If you wish to join us, you can meditate with us starting at 6 p.m. your time. This will ensure that people are praying, meditating, and sending healing energy 24 hours a day from each time zone. Or if you prefer, you may join us at 6 p.m. Pacific Standard Time. Our intention is to create a heart based intention for prayer, healing, recovery, and support for:

1. The Haitian People
2. The land of Haiti
3. All the aide and support people assisting the Haitian Nation

For the purpose of alignment and greatest benefit, we ask that you use the following invocation to begin your meditation. Please feel free to pass this along to any individuals, groups or organizations that you feel might like to participate. Thank you so much for your time and support.

Invocation for healing:

Dear Spirit,

I ask that you help me open to your love, wisdom, and healing energy. I ask for a connection to the Master Teachers: Christ, Buddha, Mother Mary, Kuan Yin, and others who are sending love and healing to Haiti at this time. I ask for the loving and healing energies of the Angels of Light to move through me into the land of Haiti and to the Haitian people to be utilized in whatever ways are highest and best for them. I ask for the energies of strength, love, support, and revitalization to be sent to all relief workers in Haiti and all organizations helping with the Haitian situation. I _____(fill in your name) stand for the healing, recovery, and restoration to the balance of the land, the infrastructure, and the people of Haiti in highest Divine Right Order.

Thank you Spirit for this opportunity to be of service.

Message to those who wish to help...

There are many imbalances in Our World today. Some are naturally occurring and some are man-made. Some imbalances occur from the imbalance in the human collective soul and some occur as a byproduct of our evolution. Many "natural occurring" imbalances are happening as a result of ecological cycles and from energy shifts and changes in our Sun, Solar System, Galaxy, and beyond. The MEHF (Mother Earth Healing Foundation) was created to explore the possibility of mitigating some of these natural and man-made events through the use of mass energy healing and facilitation of Divine Intervention. Since 1995, we have been working on projects, such as, earthquakes, hurricanes, droughts, and mass healings during and after major disasters. It is our intention to share what we have learned along the way. We also wish to continue learning how to utilize our highest individual and collective Consciousness to heal, balance, and support all life on our beautiful planet. We believe that many of the prophecies

Dear Friends,

I am working with grassroots researchers in 90 countries around the world. We are exploring the properties and benefits of a group of "newly discovered" minerals that appear to be essential to the life and health of all plants and animals. These minerals have been concentrated from air, water, soil and are particularly easy to concentrate from sea water using the method described at:

<http://www.subtleenergies.com/ormus/tw/plant...>

You can find links to plant benefits on the page above too.

Many benefits for animals have also been observed. You can find links to these benefits at:

<http://www.subtleenergies.com/ormus/tw/anima...>

We hypothesize that these minerals improve intercellular communication in ways that Dr. Mae-Wan Ho has described at:

<http://www.i-sis.org.uk/brainde.php>

<http://www.i-sis.org.uk/gaia.php>

These minerals significantly increase the growth and nutrition of plants while significantly reducing their need for fertilizer and pesticides.

With kindest regards,

Barry Carter

re. 'Save the Earth Convention'

Hi Jean, I've been watching with interest the responses to your idea and already I've learnt so much about other things that are/ or are being organised. Such an encouragement. Networking between like minds/spirits is such a positive energy generator. I would like to subscribe! Another of your good ideas! thank you.

Like lots of others I have been consciously sculpting my life in an earth friendly manner, e.g. vegetarian, use a cycle/public transport/buy most things 2nd hand/recycle etc. I felt quite agrieved last year when in the UK to hear the Government proposing higher taxes on long haul flights to cut carbon emissions. Of course this would mean prohibiting such travel for lower income travellers who can't pay the higher taxes. It got me to thinking that it is unfair to implement 'deterents' in monetary forms because those with sufficient income have no incentive to comply. However, if green house gas entitlement was rationed in some way, individually, it would be a more equitable system.

I haven't come up with a good way to do it but during my ponderings I imagined us all having an electronic card that would register our consumption of goods with a high environmental price tag. Each person would have an annual allocation. I don't like this idea because it has a 'big brother' feel to it but I'm sure there are lots of creative thinkers amongst your subscribers who could offer some good ideas to Governments, more reflective and inventive than higher taxes yet again.

Someone posted on a forum about your idea for a save the Earth convention.

In the post I read that you wanted feedback about it.

It's a great idea but there is one thing which I find a huge flaw I would appreciate your giving some attention to.

We can not improve anything without being grateful for what we have first.

I can tell you that this is absolutely true when it comes to politicians.

I started making little "alters" to the ones I like a few years ago.

Right now I am in awe at how much I love and appreciate my mayor, county exec, governor, and president.

I am not being a bit sarcastic when I say that.

Each of these is a truly special human being who I idolize in one way or another.

I'm not saying you must be fake but you can not access the correct energy from a point of judgment and disappointment.

Appreciation for what you do like gives you the correct energy to correct what you don't like.

Please continue the idea but remove the first statement about your dissatisfaction with current politicians. I bet you can't imagine how tough it is for them, especially the good ones.

XO

Dear Jean - I love the idea of the "Save The Earth Convention" you've proposed. I do have a suggestion, but where I'm at I have access to the web and not e-mail, so I'm posting it here. I would love to see this put up on a cohesive site, and have peoples' vows somehow forwarded to that site. A blog with an incoming e-mail address would be ideal, especially with a syndicated feed. Every post would help drive new traffic to the site, and make more people aware. Such a blog can also be set up to automatically post to Twitter as well. I think that the two of us should work together on taking this concept viral, beyond just the ERN subscriber network. I will do some initial setup and get back to you with further details via e-mail soon.

Regards,

Dan

this was my message to my 4 children for the new year - you may enjoy
A Message to my Children

many of us keep searching for answers and methods that will create change. for thousands of years the teachings have been that the greatest power to heal and to transform is love feel love for the earth, life, and all that is precious to you. Hold gratitude in your heart at all times – the world looks like the beautiful place it is when we are grateful

Start by experiencing love for yourself and all you have been through to get you to this point in life. when you feel ready expand your heart and allow your love to flow out to friends and family and on through to our global community.

Remember that you are part of life and that you cannot give love without receiving love. the rest of life will not receive your love if you cannot receive the love yourself.

At every moment experience the joy of the moment take every opportunity to laugh = it is still the best medicine. Have fun – do the things that make your soul sing; do whatever gives you joy and is in keeping with your true self – if something or someone does not fit in with that move on be thankful for the lessons we are taught along our way and take only the lesson and love, not the pain or anger from any challenging situation

Respect all life, particularly your own, treat it as the holy temple it is – only digest food, both physical and mental that is right for it

Don't give away your time and energy to the dramas that the media and communication industry feed us – our bodies react to these as if they are real – we do not want to give away our power and joy to those who wish to control us for financial benefit

Watch your thoughts at all times – they create your action – which creates your world – and help create the world of those around you

Your only reality is what is around you – live in your world and allow your life to create that world

Act at all times with integrity; as the great commandment says “do to others as you would have them do to you”

Above all

“Be at Peace with God whatever you conceive Him to be and whatever your labours and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.... it is still a beautiful world. Be Cheerful. Strive to be happy” Desiderata 1952

The people are so busy with the dailey grind here they seem to have lost their ability to see what is happening to their freedoms. I read and hear what is happening to the population of the US and we see that the leaders we call senators and congressmen have lost their abilities to hear what the people are screaming at them. There needs to be a health system like in Canadaas the people are not able to stay alive ig\ they are getting mnajor sicknesses anymore. They cannot afford to pay 300 to 400 dollars a month for health insurance.

They refer to my person as Matthew Racicot. I am a newcomer to this network and wish to be all the change I wish to see in the world. I was prompted to this via a forward email from the creator Jean Hudon. I wish to open a conduit for discussion regarding said email and message. I fully agree with it all. I simply need to have this question answered? Will One World Government be the answer to changing the situation we are in. Where should I post this question as I really want resolution on how that could be a good thing? National IDcards to enforce such taxes as being proposed I feel will be detrimental to our freedom to the semblance of housing all the sheep of the world into one sealed barn. Really now...can you explain to me how this is happening in a good way. I agree again with all you say. I just want to know about the Good. Much thanks Peace and Love! Max

I was inspired a short time ago to launch a new conversation/campaign for provide good water for everyone. The basic idea is that money ($10's of billions every year) used to buy bottled water or other bottled fluids is contributed to a fund to provide good water for those in the most need. We will have products and ways to reduce the need and perceived need for bottled water usage. Your membership/friendship and feedback is appreciated. I want to manifest a powerful campaign to accomplish this. Also you can go to our <http://www.superoh.com> for an extensive source about everything water.

Just word this a.m. from lawyer Ed Steele of Idaho, One Flu Over the Ukraine's Nest, that a flu epidemic is in full swing there, ca 3000 deaths.
www.NickelRant.com A national emergency has been declared and international help has been invited. In Amerika we have had chemtrails and biological warfare in many forms, so now we are expecting the secret cabals to begin this horrible flu activity here. Many, if not most, of us don't want flu vaccinations, so it will remain to be seen what they will do to us, the protesters, now called "terrorists"!!, for not accepting this assault on our bodies. Thank you for the excellent info you provide.

I was looking up Ken Carey's Starseed Transmissions and the first link I went to brought me to you in perfect synchronicity.... I am in the process of putting out a new book (music & narration) of "The Story of Time...The Story of Turtle and Tree", a collaboration with Jose Arguelles who sent it to me many moons ago (1997)... I think you would like it... I would really like to talk to you... you can reach me by email (above) Too much to write... I will continue looking at all the wonderful things on your website... beautiful photos! etc... Merci et au plaisir... de Francine

Hi Jean, a deep thank-you for your soul. I think it is worth mentioning that Australia has just come out of the flu season. For a time the city where I live, Melbourne, had a very high infection rate of swine flu. In fact myself (a sever asthmatic) and my family all contracted swine flu as did many of my colleagues and certainly the students of the college where I work. Certainly swine flu like any other flu is not pleasant but it is NOTHING TO BE AFRAID OF. It is interesting that although there was a noted high infection rate, only about 12 people died because of related complications such as pneumonia, heart conditions etc and despite the high infection rate no more people died then is usually the case here in a flu season. So I guess I just wanted to pass on the message that catching swine flu itself is nothing to fear. As one, Rob.

When one is given a Gift , does one tell the giver how it ought be presented ?

My heart is always moved to receive the fruits of Jeans ongoing labour . Whatever format suits Jean. . . surely that is all that matters .

The ERN compilations are a twofold gift. One is the bounty of networking and information presented . . . but firstly ...

i receive the incredibly heartwarming energy that suffuses me when i see Jeans name in my mailbox.....for just to feel "He's done it again ! " . . .is for me , the Inspirational Blessing

I have been a subscriber for over a decade and enjoy the news when I get a chance to read them.

My vote is for a shortened summary and link to the site (how about a blog) with a place to comment.

I seldom get a chance to participate in the meditation focus.

Blessings Jean for all your hard work.

Dear Rob (see post 112),

Could not find the mentioned documentary, but came across the 'It's Not Easy Being Green' story on how former AUS prime minister Howard lose his seat (also) thanks to a guerrilla action of a former top business man addressing H's neglect of climate change.

<http://www.abc.net.au/austory/specials/being...>

An inspiring story for sure!

Hi Jean, as always I am moved from tears of despair to tears of joy in reading the compilations. I recently came across an Australian TV documentary about a remarkable individual whose ideas about agriculture are shown to be reclaiming desolate land. It is a beautiful story and one of real hope. I wanted to share the link to this story. <http://www.abc.net.au/austory/> I regard this as a must see. Thanks for your amazing work. You are a blessing, as one, Rob

I am hesitant to say how you should do your compellations for it is your inspiration and creation, your service.

For me, the length is long too read everything, and some subjects are very disturbing to read many details. I like to be informed, not ignorant, and still maintain my energy in an uplifting place.

If you were to create something that would work better for me, and perhaps for others, you might use these suggestions.

1. Use fewer quotes, possibly sorted by subject.
- 2 List your stories with brief summaries and hot links for those who want details, also by subject if there is more than one on a subject. Have a larger focus on inspirational stories.
3. Keep the contributions from your readers section.
4. Add an action section by topic, including meditations, for after one is educated, and ideally inspired, ideas for personal actions would be useful.

I appreciate your service and contributions to our world.

Hi Jean, I think it would improve your newsletter if you sent only one or two representative articles on a topic. I have a newsletter that I send out one article a day and I rarely find articles in your compilations to use although I more frequently see articles I have already sent. Less can be more if the percentage of material that is read is higher. The Best, Glenn

And I read everything you write, sometimes skimming but still get the gist and sometimes reading every single word. I think you are doing a fantastic service to humanity and have told many people about your website. I was delighted to see Matthew mention last time that we will one day have a world without money which is my dream - I know we need to lose the current regime before we even think about it! Hi Dear Jean,

ERN Poll...I like to say rather than jot a dot. You go through so much work on these compilations, but you wouldn't even think of doing so if it wasn't a labor of love and commitment and how many of us would actually hunt for all of this info. on our own? I vote to keep all of the information, but a format that allows people to click on a title that links to the specific article would be nice. That way people can look at what they want right away and further organize what they want to keep or read for later. I've never made up anything like this so I can't say how it should be done I only liked that one time I was able to go directly to the article I wanted by clicking on the list you provide in the beginning of each compilation. Being able to organize the reading of material that is of import to my interests is the only change I would make. I try to read most everything and I look forward to the compilations and participate in the meditation focus as well. Thank you for all your work Jean!

Blessings to you,

Suzanna

Dear Jean Hudon, though I do want to continue to be subscribed, I'm glad for the chance to tell you, that I'm NOT glad, when I receive your compilations. They are "too much" in quantity and they are too "light"- oriented, even too "light and dark" focused, while the magnetic , female aspect of the One, - emotions, feelings, desires - is almost totally missing. My goal - based on the source "Godchannel.com" - is "to heal myself into wholeness (=total self-acceptance)- and - by extension - all of Creation". After having spent 5 decades on changing the exterior world, I came down to earth and in into my body by extending my inhale towards "God" and extending my exhale towards "Love", love first of all to whatever I FEEL in this moment. If there is still the slightest denial of the tiniest overlooked feeling, how do I expect the "World" to change? Am I not a hologram of all there is?

Will not the rejected, denied, ignored, overrun feeling find an outlet in some poisonous phenomenon, be it in my personal life or in the world at large?

So please, dear Jean Hudon, take a breath, an inhale and an exhale, a time out, from your art and ants' work and listen to your inner voice that will tell you, on what you should focus . Though you and I believed, that we have been investing all this time and effort "for the world" [you say: ..." I put in every year to prepare this stuff for you")- it has been, in fact, just our own staging in our personal dramas so as to learn and to heal, to create and to love. And I am glad, that now you are ready to change the staging in YOUR drama. Christa-Rachel Bat-Adam, German-Christian by birth, Jewish-Israeli by choice

Hello Jean and All

Bruno's Sculpture Garden in Marysville Victoria was featured in Jean's latest compilation.

Sadly they lost their home, gallery and a good part of their garden due to the recent horrific fires in Victoria, Australia.

A message from Bruno can be read here: http://www.celticgardens.com.au/spheres_of_l...

They will rebuild.

Dear Jean,

A few weeks ago I experienced something that I haven't shared and yet I meant to on several occasions and then felt that I didn't know how to describe what I saw in my dream and ended up doing nothing about it until today. The current meditation focus must certainly be a thread running through individuals around the globe!

I had several nights of the same dream. It made such an impact on me because I could feel the dream as I was experiencing it and also gave my mind a way to wrap itself around the subject of ascension. As I stood in the dream, my body started to break away from me and through the cracks that became visible a great light came forward. I remember looking at my hands and then down the rest of my body and at first I was stunned as to what was happening until I realized that I still had a body within the body that was falling away and that body was mine just as much as the one that was falling away only the new body was vibrant in shining light! I was absolutely amazed at the transformation. It wasn't painful, it was glorious and I remember my thoughts as I realized that this was ascension, this was what becoming the Light was all about. The dream ended there as a message to my Being and I believe as a directive as to some future event that those of us who are destined to experience Ascension will come to. The meditation focus for today blew me away and once again...Thank you!

.....do you too somehow feel Jean that the beatific energy of Blessing that's radiating out from this

Southern Point of the World is like a Confirmatory Sign that the New World is very presentwell so i imagined that this was the crux of the dialogue we'd be having Jean if you'd been physically there so at least i had to tell you bout it via this MessageBook

Here's Celebrating the Love Energies moving thru this world !
Despite any rough times we may experience in this 9 Year the Energy released in this 1st month sure will take us a long way from my point on the Grid to yours there sure have been Connections made !

Wishing you All Blessings Jean and i'll post a verse of the song that resounded thru the hills of this Southern Land on Jan 25th compliments of Leonard Cohen -

.....It's coming to America first,
the cradle of the best and of the worst.
It's here they got the range and the machinery for change and it's here they got the spiritual thirst.
It's here the family's broken and it's here the lonely say that the heart has got to open in a fundamental way:
Democracy is coming to the U.S.A.

Dear Brother Jean i write this to you on the Eve of Australia Day just to tell you how much i was thinking of you yesterday eve .
Wishing i could transmit to you the joy of experiencing many many people of all ages all races gathered together in a common purpose and from such witnessing the mass frequencies of Peace Joy Love , which were everywhere abounding

For indeed this was a Mass Gathering . . . to an onlooker this may have resembled a Pilgrimagean Exodus a multitude of people trekking under high Sun to arrive at the ' promised land ' ... and sure enough their faith was confirmed For their trek led them to Heaven on Earth .

here in this green Vineyard flanked by glorious hills underneath a dome of sky with a 360 view a multitude of 'strangers' created such a Peace Frequency that Urth Herself wouldve been tickled in the most delightful way . [Whew what an Energy got released on the Grid yesterday What a magnitude of " Light and Love " ! . Any one with a view from ' Above ' wouldve seen a radiance of Light from the Southern Hemisphere Australia origin point Healesville]

Though the gathering had not been labelled or advertised as a " Peace Event " nevertheless Peace was everywhere . Its presence is demonstrable when energy flows harmonically through a multitude of strangers ... no traces of hostility or hurry tension just an ambience of grace and genuine patience as people navigated the more stressfull aspects that are part of an 'exodus '

Not that i ought call it ' exodus ' for the Greek word itself means ' Departure '.....whereas this had more the feeling of a HomeComing . Although there were many different Tribes gathered they came together as One and the Harmonic Energy was visible tangible

Only when Love's Messenger or call him the ' High Priest of Love ' [who gave the world the best ' Halleluliyah] or call him Leonard Cohen yes it was only when Leonard sang the Democracy song , that i realized the cute synchrony of events for each time the ' old prophet ' sang the chorus line of Democracy is coming[which i perceive as the Spirit of Freedom rather than a political entity]
i registered how 5 days earlier the people of the globe had been celebrating the New Energy that had come thru the United States .

Can you understand why i was thinking bout you Jean . As far as i see it , you and Leonard are both
' Embassadors of Love " and as Venus shone like a beacon in the blue twilight i felt the Canadian Connection , here was a veteran Brother from your Homeland..... and even though you werent here to partake of these paradisaical moments and we couldnt say to each other -
" Look its a happening isnt itsuch a magnitude of Love in the air and flowing thru all ' the Songlines ' ...yes Heaven on Earth is sure a Reality hehand

yeah do you too somehow feel Jean that the beatific energy of Blessing that's radiating out from this Southern Point o

Dear Jean...

First I want to thank you for the beautiful music. I've had a long day and it is delightful to let it stream through my evening here.

I want to comment on why I have not written in words anything in regards to the Palestinian suffering a slaughtering depopulation. I just don't seem to have words left in me anymore for the horrendous conflicts and repercussions that hatred and indifference inflict on this earth. I am feeling it all greatly and the tears flow with my prayers, but words fail me and perhaps others feel likewise. Please keep your voice, we still need to hear.

Sincerely,

It takes deep soul clarity to love without fear.

Our unconscious is spotted with childhood and past life sadnesses.

However, when we allow ourselves to FEEL, our hearts open and know the truth.
Feeling is the key.

The truth is that humanity has the power to change the entire universe - a universe
ACHING to free itself from fear.

Each one of us has the power to heal the entire universe. Not alone - using our love, as one.

The beings who architected this universe know us, feel us and wait for us to choose.

They have known for millenia that this time is coming - the choosing to love.

Let's be ready!

BLESSINGS TO ALL SENTIENT BEINGS !

I forgot to mention that, although the thought of making 2008 the year of love is great - in all actuality, the upcoming year, numerologically is $2+0+0+9$ - adding 2 and 9, one gets 11 and $1 + 1=2$ and 2 is the number of love, divine partnership and balance - we have a wonderful year ahead of us and a chance for all of us to become more balanced, loving, partnered, not only perhaps in loving, but within the constructs of creating partnerships of all kinds, especially that of communion-in-unity, community, cooperativeness, opening up to bartering, and trading, and also partnering in monetary matters, creating alternative communities, even in making cooperative and community type investitures, in things such as alterate ways of living simply so that others can simply live, wind, solar, peanut butter powered anything and everything - and it is only through intent, desire, and living our lives, every day in every way, in all our thoughts, words, deeds, actions, and responses - and most of all, being aware, that as we all know, there will be and are alot of unaware, unawakened beings that will cling as though their lives were at stake, to the old useless ways of living and being in the world - and therefore, it is our duty to softly, and lovingly awaken those who still sleep.

This, however, can not ever be done through anything less than divine, pure, and unconditional love. What makes it easier is to keep in mind always, and in all ways, the fact that, anybody or any situation which does not come from a point or place of love, is truly a call for love - so when hatred and ugliness, anger, and all of those toxic emotions come at us - let us remember to step back, forgive, release and let go, and move forward into the peace and luminosity of divine and unconditional love -

May the Light of God that never fails and the love of God that always heals be with you all!!

Wonderful website you have -blessings to you for all your work!

Haven't read any emails on your network yet about the miracle of Obama getting in2 office - I actually would have preferred Kucinich or Nader as they have the heart of the nation and peace on earth and the healing of our beloved Mother Earth in their hearts, but, nonetheless, Obama will make some good changes 4 the better, as he is no schlep - he grew up within the welfare realm, and in a single parent environs and was taught and parented by a woman and he is married to a very strong, independent, willfull, highly intelligent woman - so, hopefully, with all of our prayers and emotional and spiritual support, he will step forward and keep his promises for the hard-working people, and those of us upon whose backs the rich disgusting greedy and unconcerned fat cats got that way!

That being said - has anyone out there noticed this? It came to my mind one day when meditating and focusing on Obama's winning the election as he was the best of the not-so-great choices to lead our world into the millenium and our ascension into the light of loving consciousness.

In the name Obama is the word ama - hindu for the Blessed Beloved Mother. In the name Barack, which is very similar to B'aruch - which I believe is judaic for the Blessed One is a similar energy numerologically - so, in my meditation, the information I received was that he was divinely assigned by the Ascended Mastership and the Legions of Light to bring forth the energies to the planet, the world, all dimensions, Mother Earth, animalkind and humanity, and all sentient life everywhere - the luminous and healing energies of the Divine Blessed Mother - even to look at Obama's face and his energy field - there is a quiet stillness within him that emanates a very loving and concerned nature - Thanks be to all of you, esp. Michael Moore for his slacker tour and all of you who worked so diligently, long and hard and those of you who were awakened to vote for him - may all beings be blessed, well and loved --

I just wanted to leave a message of Hope for all of us and after reading realize for sure it is WE together that can create change, there is no other way and to learn to love one another, learning how to work together in harmony and love. I remember listening to my grandmother and now understand her sadness, she was a wise women with a lot of heart. Believe she passed it on to me as I sit here reading and knowing how we let the good pass us by greed, such a shame, we do have a chance to change the process together. Blessings to you all in love.

Dear Jean

I've read your most recent compilation "There Is Always Hope" – I'm always checking your website for the latest and have been since 2001 – and I was saddened to read the letter from Kathleen, and enjoyed the supportive and positive response that you inserted.

I want to thank you for the detailed and positive approach that you have. The way that I have dealt with this "looking around ourselves to see how others are" is to simply do my own work, my own healing and as I change I see those changes in others too. What I have noticed is that as I settle and live in the body and not the head, my body starts to see that I am available and that I love and care for my body and myself. It is only when we love ourselves, and the body that we have been given for this lifetime, that we can bring miracles into our own lives. Right now I see truly miraculous changes happening. Sometimes I wish it was faster, but I am so excited about being here right now as a part of this big transformation. Many people may not survive it, or see it as disastrous, particularly those who are caught up in the need to be financially successful. What we are seeing as a difficult time is just the crisis that happens as the old system breaks down and the new one comes in. There are always people who will do their utmost to fight and save the old way and this desperation will always appear to be more destructive.

It takes time for change to take place. If you are living in any extreme then your views will be extreme and the way you see the world will be extreme. In Chinese medicine this would be seen as a weak spleen, which is the way of the western world. We are addicted to so many things, bad food, binge drinking and unsavoury habits. Equally the opposite is true and we become extreme in our campaign for change and for good. Our beliefs can be “addictive”. When we settle in the centre and allow each person to find their own way we do not get so bitter and angry about whether or not they eat meat or behave in a way that we do not approve of. As we move more into the light all of this will change. It is only love and compassion for each other that will allow these changes to take place. Shifting from eating meat, which is still the “norm”, to becoming vegetarian will take its time and will happen in a more natural way as farmers can no longer afford to rear animals for food because they take up too much pasture which can be used more appropriately. If everyone suddenly stopped all those poor animals would simply be slaughtered because it would cost too much to keep them.

Let life unfold and we will be amazed at how correct it can be, as long as we stay in the loving centre of our own being.

Matthew is my inspiration – he once asked his mother to end all she wrote with the words “Love and Peace”. This is how I now end all my correspondence.

Love and Peace

Dearest Brother Jean,
firstly, let me thank you from the deepest recesses of my heart and spirit for bringing to light for me the most frightening AND spiritually uplifting information available in one place. i've been an ERN subscriber for a couple of years now but i've been following your site for about 4 years now and i think it's now long overdue for me to make a few contributions. the site i'd like to bring to the attention of all right now is the Venus Project as it offers one of the clearest visions for a sustainable and spiritually enlightened future civilization i have found so far. please take a look and decide for yourself.

Peace, Love and Light to all, especially to the dark ones as they are the ones most in need.

I share a comment that I made to the article at:

<http://www.opednews.com/articles/Return-of-t...>

This is not a Fantasy World - Take Inspired Action

It may be tempting to sit back and simply enjoy a moment of being inspired by Ferdinand's article. Then the moment passes, right?

As a being of integrity you could also use your moment of inspiration to commit yourself to taking inspired actions, actions that may continue beyond the period of being inspired. Perhaps the actions will involve your entire life. But what a great life! What else were you born for? To be gullible? To be a sheeple?

Clarity does not vanish. Ferdinand has provided some clarity here. What would happen if you were to make actual use of it?

"There really is no going back to a life of ignorance. Every bit of information you have assimilated has changed you forever."

Start where you are in this inspired moment and go forward. Take actions like Naomi Wolf is taking actions. Read her book Give Me Liberty. Do you think she planned out what she is doing right now? No she did not. www.myamericaproject.org. She is making it up as she goes along out of raw passion for the clarity she is creating. She takes one step after another, the step that is before her, not knowing what the next step will be. And her actions are making a difference. Yours could too, if you would only take those actions and not just fantasize about it. Cool it with the Yoda movie quotes. This is your life.

"Part of your power is your infectiousness. Every word you utter and every action you take affects the world around you. Even though there are many closed minds, there are still many open souls receptive to the waves of truth that emanate forth from your very presence. "

So stop sleepwalking - it only puts the world to sleep. Instead have a Wake Up Meeting at your house each week. Meet in the name of finding out what you truly want to create, of living how your heart truly wants to live. Visit www.just-stop.org for more inspiring ideas.

Read Radiant Joy Brilliant Love by Clinton Callahan www.radiant-joy.com for how to make love happen in your life. This is all new territory, far beyond the thought limits of mainstream culture. They did not teach this stuff to you in school because the teachers do not know about it. The politicians and government officials do not know. The bankers do not know. The door is wide open right now in front of you, but only you can take the actions to go through the door.

Start regular weekly meetings no matter who shows up. I am doing it. It is fantastic! I never know what we will do together. Sometimes it is only two of us. One time it was 19 people! I just announce every where I go that the meeting is happening at my house at 4:30 EVERY Wednesday! Amazingly it works each time. And it is so inspiring!

Don't argue at your meetings. No one has to be right. Don't try to create answers. Just ask dangerous questions. No drugs. No alcohol. Just enjoy each other's intelligence creatively at play.

To all Spiritual Seekers looking to unlock the evolution of their Consciousness at this time of Ascension:

"There is a V I S I O N unfolding,
And a Message on its way.

There's a Journey for Mankind,
And there can be no delay.

For soon you will feel it,
Upon your cheek like the wind.

And soon you'll perceive it,
Like an astonishing sting.

For T I M E is no more,
And the clarity will show.

That man walks this Journey,
Or there will be no tomorrow."

VISION is in Sight.
www.visionbook.co.uk

About VISION:

THE LIGHT

VISION is not merely a book of words, it is a book of Spiritual Light. The spiritual light within the pages is governed by a higher form of consciousness. Let's just call it Energy or God.

The Quantum Effect: Shall we say that, as in quantum physics, the words know when they are being observed and they respond accordingly, knowing who is looking at them.

For example: Let's say that each word is an open portal into the mind of God and God is looking into your consciousness through each word. As you read, God bathes you in spiritual light at whatever level you are ready to receive in the moment.

When you read the book, the light initiates an evolutionary event within you. It commences what is known as an Evolutionary Cycle. Each cycle takes around 4 months to complete from the moment of triggering. During this period your vibration will go through an Evolutionary Shift, rising from one base-line level to a higher base-line level.

Base line shift can occur gradually or suddenly, whichever it is, there is always the development of an Inner Knowing that something has changed within you.

Subtle or Gross Energetic Effect: Each time you read the book it will be different, but always there will be an effect whether deep within you or nearer the surface. The deeper the Light is pushed, the more subtle the feelings or experience, and the longer the Light unfolds as it returns from the depths to the surface consciousness on its journey of bringing change and transformation. If it is more appropriate that work is performed upon you in the energy system or chakras, then this is nearer the surface, and thus, is more immediate and also more easily felt.

FEAR OF CHANGE

Spiritual Light changes you, but many people have a Fear of Change. Therefore, they block the light from their lives. However, this book is different. It calls to you only when you are truly ready to receive spiritual light. The more you read it with a desire to change, the more the Light will change you. Trust it. See how it changes you.

Reader testimonial:

"VISION is a gospel. It contains All That is. Beautiful. Amazing. Divine." Karen P, UK

Read more feedback and order VISION at the website: www.visionbook.co.uk

IMPORTANT:

The Light within VISION will 'Begin' or 'Accelerate' your Evolution. Do not order this book unless you are ready to take responsibility for Your Own Evolution or what this LIGHT might open within your life.

Love and blessings

Stupid Is As Stupid Does -

r.e. "Illegal To Keep Rain Water In USA" in 9-13-08 Turning Tide #27. Looks like could be the beginning of a campaign to overturn obstacles to large landholders collecting rainwater for consumption or sale. you posted the message of matthew about the war between georgia and russia. in our own backyard there is also war and violence. i am from the philippines. i live in mindanao, one of the the three major islands, i the province of lanao del norte. last august 18, 2008 a group of rebels swooped down on one of the villages of a town in lanao del norte. they burned houses, killed helpless innocent children, women and old men. under this circumstance it is so hard to internalize the message of matthew that what it takes to solve this problem is just to imagine a band of light. incidentally, those killed were my friends- peace loving people. how i wish i could believe in the message of matthew. my heart grieves.

Can anyone out there noticed the link between shark attacks on humans and catastrophic disasters? I have noticed that most disasters that have happened over the past say five years (when I started paying attention) were preceded by shark attacks. Right before 9/11 this happened, before the tsunami this happened and recently before the last earthquake hit Los Angeles there was a report of a shark attack. Am I spooking? or is there some connection?

I am but so grateful that this earth will someday understand the control that so many religions have cause people to carry such horrible guilt and fear. Dear Jean,

I am sending the following for your next mailout. Cheers

Keep the Faith

I note with interest the political developments in the US as the presidential election draws near. I know it is difficult to keep the faith when there has been such darkness at the head. We, in Australia had our federal election last year where the Evil One, John Howard, lost most soundly.

In the times leading up to the election, however, it was really difficult to believe that there could be change – even though everything pointed that way. Howard had successfully revived his political career on 2 occasions already – was he going to do it a third time? The answer quite clearly was no. And on that election weekend in Canberra, as one friend put it, it was like the difference between night and day.

Since that time Rudd has done some great things, but has also had to play the political game and done some not-so-great things, as we are still in that political paradigm. One of the great things was the Apology to the Stolen Generations of Aboriginal people. I wish to share this with ERN readers as they may have heard about this in their media, but may not understand that a truly profound healing took place on that day – as the result of a motion in Parliament. Actually the word 'profound' doesn't come close to describing it.

It started with the opening of parliament. Prime Minister Rudd had invited a representative of the Indigenous Traditional Owners of the country to do a 'Welcome to Country' ceremony at the opening. This had never happened before and was televised widely. It was a clear statement of inclusion. The parliament was opened on the Monday and business was to begin on the Wednesday with the Apology. Thousands, both black and white, had travelled to Canberra for the event and many were camped out on the lawns in front of parliament house. Also the Apology was to be televised and broadcast on the radio as it was happening in parliament – so it was accessible to all who couldn't be there.

Large screens were set up in all the capital cities and there were gatherings in cities and towns all around the country. Thousands stood for an hour in the pouring rain in Sydney to witness the event. I personally braved the chilly wind to witness it in front of Parliament House in Hobart with hundreds of others.

On the morning of the Apology people were lined up from 7 am to get into parliament house – another first. Special guests were reserved seats in the public gallery in the chamber and hundreds of others were seated in front of a large screen in the Great Hall. Thousands more were watching from the lawns in front of parliament house. The event had been organised to get the maximum exposure possible.

As Rudd read his speech, which lasted half an hour, people were drawn into the sincerity of it realising he was going to say all that needed saying. And it came straight from the heart. During that time the collective heart opened and hundreds of thousands of people around the country felt it - t

Dear Jean,

My comment has been fostered by Ariel Ky's letters about her experiences in China. I was in China for a class at the University of Beijing the summer of 2004. My daughter and I travelled a bit while there to different provinces and experienced a variety of situations. I felt very changed within myself from that trip. China is a beautiful country and most of the people we met were very genuine and kind. They were open to our being there and showed an interest in us and we in them. I would also like to express that we felt that mostly from those people who were not greatly affected by the commercialization or westernization of their culture.

In Beijing there is NO tolerance for drivers who aren't able to adjust to the maniacal driving habits. Pedestrians and those on bicycles literally are taking their lives in their own hands trying to cross streets even within marked crosswalks. There is a marked frenzy of activity and it is anything but laid back and tolerant. There are many levels within the Chinese society and it is not a subtle difference. Those who have achieved a modicum of success have the large SUV's and live in gated communities. There are chauffeured limosines and many places for those with money to live far above the reality of most of the populace. Greed does not come only in the form of an American face.

China is growing into this century in a very western way. I was extremely impressed with the organized beauty of agriculture. This could only be possible if the people who tended the land and its fruits lived with deep respect and knowledge of the earth. Today, China talks about mechanizing their farming. I was so saddened by that prospect and I still am reduced to tears just to think of it. There are so many people who would live with even less than they do now and there wouldn't be work for them. Their entire lives from generations past would be uprooted and displaced. That has and is happening now in China even without the agricultural changes. The land would suffer greatly as well. Ariel mentioned her connection to past life experiences in China. I also felt overwhelmed with that same experience. Perhaps the seat of civilization channeled through Asia as I have been shown within my own spirit. Mongolia to be exact, but close enough to hold the energy within our genetic code. The contrasts that exist in China are in the extreme. Perhaps that can be said for any country if one has eyes to see and also the opportunity to travel beyond the comfort of your own backdoor. I feel a deep love for China, for its land and for its people. I would love to go back there, but I would not need to go to the cities. The countryside and small towns hold the charm for me just as they do in every other country I've visited. Is it cities that change us more so in the negative?

RE: Revelation: Joseph's Message by Michael G. Reccia

Dear Spiritual -Seekers,

I am writing to let you know about international medium, Michael G. Reccia's new book Revelation: Joseph's Message, which I feel will be of interest to you. Details of the book can be found on our website: www.thespiritguide.co.uk

The book has just been published and contains astonishing new teachings from the spirit realms, dictated to Michael over a period of three years by Joseph, one of his spirit guides, who has lived many times on Earth and has a vital message for mankind - offering a practical spirituality that might just change this World for the better before it is too late.

This book is startling in content, providing revolutionary views on who and what we really are, where we came from, why we are here and the miraculous things we are capable of achieving and covers a variety of topics including thought, love, healing, religion, illness, power, violence and the very nature of reality itself. Intelligent, non-religious and thought-provoking, Joseph's Message is concerned with the facts about creation and human potential rather than man-made doctrines that restrict the human spirit and cripple true spiritual growth.

My e-mail address is: jkneen@bandoflight.co.uk or I can be contacted on +44 (0)1282 454317

Yours sincerely,

R. Jane Reccia

Hello

In our quest for balance and harmony.

All should be aware

The future is a little brighter

Please visit these sites. The Oil Empire is coming to an end.

Zero Pollution Motors (ZPM) confirmed to PopularMechanics.com on Thursday that it expects to produce the world's first air-powered car for the United States by late 2009 or early 2010. As the U.S. licensee for Luxembourg-based MDI, which developed the Air Car as a compression-based alternative to the internal combustion engine, ZPM has attained rights to build the first of several modular plants, which are likely to begin manufacturing in the Northeast and grow for regional production around the country, at a clip of up to 10,000 Air Cars per year.

Four years ago I met the Avatar Michael El Nour who is the embodiment of Archangel Michael on the planet at this time. Here is a book that was written to help everyone to heal, understand and raise the consciousness of the planet.
Here is his book.

AMEN, The Occult Bloodline of the Grail
By Michael El Nour

The Return of the Son of Man

A reality or a dream, born of man's longing for love, peace, and happiness?

Periodically, mankind has been seized by a mix of hope and fear, longing for the return of the character identified as the Christ, the Son of Man, emissary of the Omnipotent, invisible God and anchor of Divine Will.

What and who is the Son of Man? Was Jesus of Nazareth myth or reality? Is there a relationship between the archetype of Savior and forerunner of divine judgment and the Solar Archangel Michael? Who, then, is the Great Dragon, Lord of the Ancient Traditions and Kingdoms? Intuited

Has the prophesied return of the Son of Man, the Anointed --- the "Egyptian Iu, the Ever Coming One, who was personified as the Divine Child, that is the Su, hence Iusu/ Jesus"--- anything to do with recent interest in the stories and myths surrounding the Grail, the Knights Templar, and Mary Magdalene? Is the existence of a Divine Bloodline, secretly linked with the Son of Man, a myth manipulated by the media? Or is it a reality, coveted by those in search of power?

Are the enduring legends and prophecies, upon which human faith and religions have been founded, simply human interpretations of universal laws and mechanisms? Or do they rather suggest the existence of a spiritual, intelligent Realm, one that rules human history and facilitates a gradual merging of Heaven and Earth for the realization of Divine Perfection, candidly labeled the Kingdom of God?

Amen, The Occult Bloodline of the Grail, is a thoroughly researched book offering an exclusive angle and personal perspective on the subject of Divine Lineage and Kingship, connected to an in-depth study of the Archangel Michael. Furthermore, Amen offers unique information about the nature of the Grail, the secret of the Knights Templar, and an explanation of the gift of prophecy through the science of Time. Of more pressing interest, Michael El Nour illuminates the link between such apparently arcane subjects and the tangible realities of global power and politics.

Hello Jean. Really appreciate the work you do.

Just one thing though. It's funny how Vegetarianism hits a tender spot in 'Spiritually Awakened' persons! Is it perhaps because eating flesh seems to be a conflict with the path? God gave us plenty to eat, eg nuts, seeds fruit, vgs from above ground without killing even the plants. We even get nourishment from the air, especially in pristine, less polluted country areas.

Besides, we don't need much input of food to sustain us.

Love light and laughter

Happy 2008 dear Jean and EveryOne

Since 2005 , i had the vision of a site ... Greetings of Love ~ a quiet oasis of InSpiration
[no ads or pop ups]

Finally it is a reality !

If ever you feel the need to send someone[or even yourself] some Love...drop in and use the Greeting Card [free[Service

The cards i have created fall into these themes -

InSpiration

Spirit of Nature

Honouring the Feminine

Honouring the Masculine

Specially Childy

Romantic Love

Lover in Flesh [sacred sexuality]

The " Little Messengers" are waiting. . . ready to fly thru the WWWeb when you feel the need

Greetings of Love is at your Service.
Feel free to let some Love loose...

Shine On EveryOne

and on behalf of All.... thanks to our Brother Jean for being a massive example of the Power of ongoing Love and holding the Lighthouse for this last decade !

Hello Jean,

I would like to comment on the article pertaining to the Amish children and autism. I have worked within the Amish community for over four years and I am in direct contact with many of the health issues in the community. I have worked on quite a number of autistic children within a single settlement and none have had vaccines that I am aware of. I'm not for vaccinations, but I don't think that the vaccination issue is the main culprit in autism. I personally believe that genetic factors, some of which may be triggered by vaccines, are a more likely cause. Today our genetic material is compromised in every society due to the very aspect of the environmental demise we all share in. It is a personal and non-scientific opinion that I pose, but I would not like to think that we are blindsided by a bias against anything if it would keep us from looking at the whole picture for answers to a problem.

Sincerely,
Suzanne Sjogren

Dera Jean You follow your own believed mission with unusual persistence and obviously long hours of hard work in order to compile what are actually political dossiers. From quantum physics, from recent movies such as What the Bleep Do We Know, David Icke, Anastasia and from inside the self, the truth is, there is only love. The dark exists by the power of the mind to create it. Whatever we focus on we create. Focus on the dark political agendas creates more of the same. Once the faith is placed on only love, then do we literally see the darkness recede. For all the years you have given your faith to exposing both good and evil and what has changed in the "world"? It is the power of focus, the choice to live each present moment only giving attention to the positive that creates it. We become what we think about. There IS no external reality "out there". The mind, the brain is a holographic creating phenomenon and hence the crystal skulls. Give your readers the opportunity to read this, if you will be so kind. The Word has the power to create. Look at the words you use. If such negative words affect water molecules what are they doing over the internet? Please, I write not to criticise. I just know from experience what changes came over my own life when I stopped giving my energy to the negative and understood the "world" is illusion.

I am a nutritionist working on a PhD in holistic healing. My topic is the obesity in our culture. I know what is causing it and how to correct it. My masters thesis is Digestive Failure as the Basis of All Disease. I teach how to restore the digestive and immune systems and then the body heals itself. It is designed to. It takes about six to eight weeks to restore the balance and then another two years of recycling the cells to return to normal and healthy.

I would like an opportunity to set up some research to prove what I am saying. Unfortunately the powers that be do not seem to be interested.

Please let me know if there is anyone out there who would like to back this project. This will prove to be the correcting factors for AIDS, Cancer, Aging and Degenerative Diseases.

Greetings,

WE ARE SPRED LUV!

You are invited to participate in PROJECT SPRED LUV!

With all of the various troubles in our world today, we must come together and work towards the common uniting goal of making a positive change. This situation has motivated us to begin PROJECT SPRED LUV! Just what is PROJECT SPRED LUV! you might ask? Well, this is a combination of many small projects with one purpose ---to SPRED LUV! Some of these projects will involve creating an interactive website, artistic flyers, designing beautiful T-shirts, bumper stickers, rubber wrist bracelets, renting advertising spaces (billboards, city buses), planning artistic, poetic and community events and much more.

As with all projects, success depends on participation by like minded people who have a common desire to create a positive outcome. When we all contribute our unique talents to PROJECT SPRED LUV! we are creating a movement that will change the world.

At this moment we are requiring the three P's: purchasing, printing, and packaging of materials for the three D's: development, displaying and distribution. We intend to FREELY distribute items to people who desire to participate and ask only for whatever contribution they may be able to make. We have created many artistic designs that will be made available for print.

We invite you to participate in PROJECT SPRED LUV!

Like other creative projects, PEOPLE and their unique contributions will provide the positive energy, momentum and the desired movement to ensure the positive outcome desired.

We would LUV! to hear from you – even if you won't contribute at this time- because we simply LUV! you.

I want to put in my two cents worth:

All the peace vigils in the world are worthwhile ONLY IF they obtain fair media coverage and the news is honestly reported and read by many people. If this is not the case, it is like the event didn't happen, and the only people who will become 'aware' are those who attended. Although peace vigils are a great idea, if they are held under the current circumstances of complete censorship by the media, they will not have the desired impact.

I hope we all know by now that the media will always downplay/under-size/ underestimate any public event that is contrary to their true interests. Unfortunately, the media are ultimately owned and controlled by the same individuals about whom the vigils are protesting. It is not in their best interests to tout or report these events.

I suggest that what is needed is A CAMPAIGN OF COORDINATED GLOBAL CIVIC DISOBEDIENCE. This does not need to take the form of anything that might be construed as 'civil unrest' - as these acts would result in a coordinated and abrupt response by local civil defense forces (i.e. police - whose actions are controlled by those about whom we would protest) and ensuing negative action against those protesting.

What would happen if everyone or anyone worldwide who disagrees with the policies implemented by the Global Elite via their political puppets in all our countries, would use the horn on their vehicle, a hand-held distress device, a trumpet, or banging on pots and pans to make noise for ONE FULL MINUTE at 0800 hours every morning ?

The impact of this simple action could be wildly contagious. If, as we are told, 70% of the adult population agrees about the disastrous, genocidal, and destructive nature of the current global situation (Iraq, Afghanistan, depleted uranium poisoning, the 9/11 sham, recession caused by Central Banking, etc.), this kind of coordinated response would have a much larger 'voice' than any number of unreported vigils. These actions of CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE would also spread quickly as those who agree would add 'voice' to the increasing global clamor.

Do you think that our representatives and lawmakers could ignore such a global event when they would be greeted by this sound every morning (MON through SUN) at 0800hrs ? Do you think these actions would remain unreported ? If nothing more, these coordinated events will give individuals a clear message that they are not alone in their disgust with the current situation.

During a visit to beautiful Uruguay earlier this year I witnessed thousands of Men, Women, and Children banging pots and pans in protest to George Bush's policies and his presence in Uruguay. Why doesn't the same thing happen elsewhere and keep happening until change is wrought ?

Just a thought. I'm ready to go, and I hope the sound of a single vehicle horn blowing in Lighthouse Point, Florida is not sufficient to bring change. I can only hope that others, feeling the same will also become disobedient the same way, at the same time every day until world. The whole awareness of these issues is so huge and constantly challenges me to work out what I can do just to increase people's awareness of what we are really doing to this world and how we, as individuals, can change it through awareness, caring, intention and action

thank you for your dedication - I have been a silent addict for some years!!

Dear Jean, there have been many times I have been prompted to write to you. To say thank-you for doing what you do, introducing me to a new idea, a way of being, a new voice calling from wilderness. Also, that you take us to the darkest aspects of ourselves showing us the extent to which we defile ourselves through our fear and our greed. Even this week, I thought I'd write and let you know about the crazy adventure I had in trying to log onto the site, 'What World War 3 might look Like' that you recommended in a recent bulletin. It seems that no one wanted me to see it.

As I was reading 'Glen for Sth. Africas' letter a number of thoughts began taking shape. I remembered that sometime ago I was anxiously waiting for a post from Mathew (Mathew's Messages) and a voice (Kiron actually) came to me and asked "Why are you waiting to hear from Mathew? Don't you know that the rocks and the trees and the everything organises itself so that you can see what is to be done?"

Looking back over ERN bulletins I notice that they organise themselves to show me the obvious; that we are one. That there are no 'others.' Yes, even the cabal with its physical manifestations of Bush, Cheney et al are our soul brothers (did I really say that?) This idea comes up somewhere in 2006 late August Early Sept through Ron Van Dyke and the last three cliff-hanger episodes of BBC SF 'Dr.Who' (Must see!)

Further, that we take responsibility for our collective miscreation mirrored to us via the cabal using the techniques taught through the Hawaiian technique of Ho'oponopono where we ask forgiveness for our mis-creations and apologise.

Perhaps during the Winter Solstice in Northern America between December 22-25 (see Sun God mythology www.zeitgeistmovie.com) as often as we can, each of us intones "I'm sorry for whatever is going on in me that manifests as the corruption and darkness I have created in my government. I ask forgiveness." And, in the tradition of Ho'oponopono, we allow love to restore our mis-creation of despotic governance back to perfection, moment by moment. I'm sure that the spiritual adepts and Ho'oponopono practitioners amongst the readership could refine this idea to make it even more potent.

If this post seems too naive or provocative in a harmful way then please don't print it. I trust your judgement. I deeply respect the political activists working hard on the ground but I can only shoot arrows of love and forgiveness towards the worst aspects of myself that present George Bush's face as the Bull's Eye.

I get so many questions about what is going on in the world today. It is nice to find a site like this where many can share their view and experiences.

Greetings!!!

For over ten years I have been an environmentalist/poet/artist/musician and teacher inspired by the knowledge that "Peace On Earth" will unite the world if we are able to hear our heartbeat and recognize that it is connected to the Earth.

This year I am teaching a children's environmental art class and we are learning about water and turtles. During our class we created a song about turtles and i'd like to share it with you.

THE TURTLE SONG

I think turtles are great
They are big and round just like a plate
They live in the water most of the time

Turtles need more room
Away from cars that zoom
They live in the water most of the time

They hunt in the water
They sleep in the water
But they bathe in the sunshine the rest of the time

Snakes, monkeys, turtles and kangaroos
and dancing bears with hulla-hoops
They need freedom like me and you birds eat worms and butterflies that flutter by and spiders - yuk

my oh my
They want to live with a clear blue sky

I think turtles are swell
blues and greens colour their shell
They live in the water most of the time

Turtles need sandy shores
To lay their eggs and folklore
They live in the water most of the time

And turtles are our friends
They need us to lend a hand

To make sure their world is safe
They don't want to live in desert lands.

I thought that you would like this effort by our next world leaders (now aged 8-14yrs)

Greetings to a new guestbook!

Thank you Jean for your continuing efforts to bring together information that enlightens your readers in many ways and gives opportunity for everyone to digest the many viewpoints that are scattered to the wind otherwise. Through the doom and gloom atmosphere that seems so prevalent today in the world front, individuals must step back and gain a perspective that goes much deeper than first glance. When bringing more of ourselves into viewing the world picture through various methods, i.e. interaction with others, broad media exposure, meditation and other spiritually directed activities etc. we can gain insights that a first glance cannot give us. The first glance is often frightening at least in this realm, but when one looks beyond the surface and trusts with ones heart that this cannot be all that there is to future outlooks or life in general then a ray of hope begins to form. From that ray of hope one can see many rays of hope blossoming over the background of a hopeless black situation. Once that is experienced, then gratitude comes in and further lifts the doom and gloom from our eyes. We can focus on the beauty of this Earth and the Creative Force behind it all and we can see that there is much more to the story than what is printed or spoken that seems to want to defeat us. There are so many souls that are together in seeing the Light in these times and there is so much good in that and it's growing. We must focus on that Light that each of us carry because it will starkly bring the darkness into clear view. That is really what is happening now, the dark is showing up so clearly. As we focus on the Light together, we become a formidable force that can only bring strength to our planet and all of its plights. It is a priviledge to be a part of these doings on Earth. Those of us who are looking from the Light perspective really need to bring those who are suffering throught horrendous experiences into the Light with us daily...it is their only protection and we have that responsibility to provide that to our fellow humans, animals, plant world and all creation. This is a healing time and we are the healers. God bless!

Hi Jean,

I like the world map that shows who is visiting your website from different countries. I'm the one in China. Unfortunately, there is a delay in getting on the Internet here because there are so few Macs in Qingdao that they have to bring in a special technician to set me up with the Internet on my laptop. So, I haven't been in good communication with anyone yet. I have made a strong connection energetically with dolphins and whales here in Qingdao on the Yellow Sea. Even so, these past few weeks have been hellacious at times with strong attacks when I've been asleep and dreaming. After the last typhoon moved through Shanghai earlier this week, there was a tremendous clearing. Let's just say, I'm doing my part as a lightworker at this time. - Ariel Ky

Dear Jean and friends,

As with many of you, I am a long-time subscriber to ERN; and I have long respected, recommended, and rejoiced in this amazing service provided to all of us. Like many of you, I don't always take the time to say "thank you" in writing; yet I feel so connected to Jean and an ever-expanding multitude of People of the Heart. Truly, regardless of appearances to the contrary, we are making a difference...a huge difference. All over the planet people are waking up in droves; and it is because of people like Jean who faithfully do their part month in and month out.

Thank you, Jean, for all you do from all who are truly grateful for your efforts.

Namaste,
Ron

Beloved Jean.

Thank You AGAIN for all the hard work of putting all this information out there for us all.

It helps a lot to give me ideas for my radio program and I am for ever grateful

I love you

STRENGTH THROUGH PEACE

Dear Friends of Jean Hudon,

I have been on Jean's mailing list since the beginning, pre-911, and appreciate so much his wonderful compassionate intelligent work!

Let us all continue to work for the greater good and make a real difference -- it is truly up to US!

When it comes time to make your choice in the 2008 Presidential primary elections, please consider who is the best man for the job -- I say it's Dennis Kucinich -- and I hope you will join me in voting for him to bring America back on track and to the next level of world leadership -- strength though peace. Thank you. 😊

Hello everyone

As you can see, we have a new guestbook because the provider of the previous one has decided to stop offering free guestbooks. You can still review the previous 469 entries at <http://www.earthrainbownetwork.com/OldERNgue...> but please note that I cannot activate all the links there as live links because it would be much too long to do. So if you wish to access any link in the previous guestbook, you will have to copy and paste it in a new browser's "go to" window.

I hope you will like the look of this new guestbook.

You are most welcomed to use it, but please note that any offensive or overtly commercial message will be deleted from the guestbook at my earliest convenience.

Best regards! 🤖
